THINGS TO NOTE

- Cell phone policy- Campers are allowed to bring cell phones to camp. The camper assumes ALL liability for their cell phone while at camp. Any camper who takes a compromising picture of another camper or staff member and makes it public in any way may be subject to dismissal from camp. If the law is broken, the appropriate authorities will be notified.
- All visitors must notify us and camp staff who will then contact the Camp Coordinator, before visiting with campers or staff.
- No bullying or violence policy. If any student participates in verbal, cyber/electronic, physical, or psychological violence, they will be dismissed from camp. No exceptions.
- Students must adhere to all camp rules that are put in place by camp leadership.
